The planned uses of the buildings are:

1. The gym is still our parish hall, for parish events, funeral dinners, and the like. A square-dancing organization has provided the necessary insurance documents, and will be renting the gym about twice per month.

2. The first floor of the main building is still our CCD center. The classrooms and office on that floor (and upper floors if needed) will provide for this ongoing ministry.

3. All of the main building and the east portable will be rented on a weekly basis. A group of homeschool families called “Catholic Schoolhouse” will gather one morning a week (9am-1pm) to do group activities and classes which supplement their at-home studies. They will pay some rent and also do their own cleaning. The buildings will benefit from such use.

4. The “Annex” across 31st street will be used by the Brothers as a classroom.

5. The South Portable was sold to Trinity Lutheran. We need to remove the 20-odd footings that were under that building, and patch the asphalt. If you have ideas, leads, or connections to people with the right equipment, Please contact Fr. Kosch.
